Today is "World Environment Day." This day was created by the United Nations in hope of making everyone around the world aware of the importance of conserving our precious environment. Name at least five (5) things that you can personally do to help save our world's environment.